What Is Happening?

We’re in the early stages of the tribulation of our generation, permitted by God, to bring about repentance and salvation.

From God’s perspective, this tribulation is beneficial and necessary because it forces us to examine our worldly attachments, sins, falsehoods, human weaknesses, and upcoming death.

Neverending Trials

Some trials can be tackled with worldly mitigation and perseverance, but most cannot, including the big one, a “harvest” that will sweep away millions of souls. Start preparing yourself today... spiritually more than materially.

Parable of the Wheat and Tares

“The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field; but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way. But when the grain had sprouted and produced a crop, then the tares also appeared. So the servants of the owner came and said to him, ‘Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have tares?’ He said to them, ‘An enemy has done this.’ The servants said to him, ‘Do you want us then to go and gather them up?’ But he said, ‘No, lest while you gather up the tares you also uproot the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, “First gather together the tares and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn.” ’ ”

-Matthew 13:24-30

Two Groups Of People

1. Most people, including "Christians," will donate their bodies to the evil princes of this world, and become a grotesque medical experiment and/or tagged cattle for the remainder of their lives. Their sufferings will be for Satan, and when they die, their souls will be given to him. Until then, they will become murderers of the righteous by supporting the use of state violence to force you into submission to alleviate their anxieties, fears, and material discomfort.

2. The remnant (true Christians) will maintain their faith through persecution and martyrdom. They will experience extreme material sufferings alongside joyful spiritual consolations, and then be given up to Christ upon death.

Suffering is unavoidable!
